Nonconversion Agreement

Following recordation of this Agreement in the Kanawha County Clerk's Office, the terms and provisions hereof shall be deemed in all respects to constitute a permanent, restrictive covenant running perpetually with the land which forever shall prohibit the construction of any new residential building(s) upon the subject real estate not meeting or exceeding the elevation of the one hundred (100) year flood as shown on the County's current Flood Insurance Rate Map, and Flood Insurance Survey for the subject area, and further shall forever prohibit any and all renovation, alteration or modification to any existing buildings which shall result in any living areas or commercial space being established therein which fail to meet or exceed the aforesaid elevation requirement. To avoid any possible misunderstanding, a major part of the consideration received by the County from the Owner pursuant to the terms and provisions of this Agreement is the agreed imposition of restrictions upon the Owner's real estate which shall forever prohibit future construction upon the subject real estate which would result in buildings or structures failing to meet the hereinbefore referenced building standards established by the County, and/or the state and federal governments;

This Agreement shall be for all purposes binding upon the respective parties' heirs, successors, personal representatives and assigns, insofar as the terms and provisions hereof are assignable;
